Malori Dawn Dupree

Gueydan High School
Gueydan, Louisiana

Malori Dupree is the daughter of Jasmine Viator and Kevin Louvierre. She is a big sister to three half-siblings and three step-siblings and a younger sister to two step-siblings. Malori is a native of Gueydan and will graduate from Gueydan High School on May 18, 2017. With a cumulative grade point average of 3.898 and a current grade point average of 4.0, she is ranked number four in her senior class. She has also continued on the honor roll throughout her high school years and will have completed a total of four college classes when she graduates from high school.

As a long-time outstanding student, Malori has received multiple awards, including receiving the Vermilion Parish Starfish Award and being selected as one of this year's recipients of the JonCade Thomas Clemons Memorial Scholarship. She has participated in several honorable programs such as Vermilion Parish Government Day and Louisiana Girls State. She is also well-liked by her peers and was voted Homecoming court maid three times and was voted as "Most Studious" by her senior class.

Ms. Dupree is an outstanding student, who has participated in many school clubs. She has served as the Gueydan Honey Bears basketball varsity team manager for a total of six years and encouraged them as they captured the Class-A State Championship title this year. She has been a member of the Fellowship of Christian Athletes, Future Farmers of America, Drama Club, Bruin yearbook staff and the SPARK Volunteer Service Club. She has also been a senior Beta Club member for four years and recently placed second at the state convention in fiber arts.

Malori will attend McNeese State University, where she has been awarded the McNeese Academic Excellence Scholarship. She will pursue a Bachelor of Science degree in nursing with the hopes of eventually earning a master's degree in nursing to become a RN-Midwife. Her ultimate goal is to own her own birthing center.

Malori Dupree attributes her success to her family and the faculty of Gueydan High School.
